The Institut Laue-Langevin (ILL), situated in Grenoble, France, is Europe's leading research facility for scientific research using neutrons. Every year we host over 2000 visits by scientists, who come to carry out world-class research.

Are you interested in joining our international institute?

Our IT Service is currently looking for a team leader with sound systems (Linux) and storage expertise. Join us as our future:

Head of Group with Linux expertise M/F

Duties:

The Network and Data Services group (a team of 4) is responsible for the ILL's Linux systems, IT infrastructure and network services, as well as for the archiving of experimental data for scientific activities. As Head of this Group, you will have the following duties:

- Ensuring the support, maintenance and upgrade of:
  - IT infrastructures for archiving, accessing and analysing experimental data
  - central Unix systems and associated services (100 servers), storage (PB) and network infrastructures (200 switches, 150 access points).
- Leading the Group in a spirit of continuous improvement: regular meetings, change management, delegation, etc.
- Reporting on the activities of the Group to the Head of the IT Service; communicating with the rest of the Service, as well as with users.
- Actively cooperating with the other Groups and providing the Head of Service with ideas and support.
- Fostering collaborations with ILL's local and European partners.

Qualifications and experience:

- Master's degree in Networking & Systems Administration or equivalent, together with 10 years' experience of UNIX systems (mainly Linux) and LAN management.
- Team leadership and/or project management experience.
- Ability to develop a participative management environment and innovative solutions.
- Proven ability to be thorough, proactive and open to new collaborations.

Language skills:

As an international research centre, we are particularly keen to ensure that we also attract applicants from outside France. You must have a sound knowledge of English and be willing to learn French (a language course will be paid for by the ILL). Knowledge of German would be an advantage.

Notes:

This post is a permanent position.

Compulsory medical examination.

Benefits:

Generous company benefits (expatriation allowance), relocation assistance and language courses may be offered (for more information, please consult our employment conditions).

How to apply:

Please submit your application on line, no later than 23.09.2018, via our website: www.ill.eu/careers (Vacancy reference: 18/36).

We are committed to equal opportunity and diversity; we therefore encourage anyone with relevant qualifications to apply.
